MISSION

The Illinois Grape Growers and Vintners Alliance (IGGVA) is a non-profit organization dedicated to developing the viticulture and enology interests of Illinois through information exchange and cooperation among Illinois grape producers and vintners.

From advocacy and communications to networking, professional development and industry liaisons, IGGVA is committed to and encourages all members, wineries and affiliates alike to focus on what they do best and then to provide opportunities which mutually benefit all involved.

The #IllinoisWine experiences are diverse, yet we're all united with a passion and pride in creating (and enjoying) hand-crafted wines in the Land of Lincoln. Membership in the Illinois Grape Growers and Vintners Alliance is a cost-effective and convenient way to support the industry, whether you're a grape grower, a wine maker, a wine retailer, a provider of goods and services, a student or just a fan in general. Associate Membership levels are listed below, and a non-inclusive list of Alliance activities can be found to the right.

Your membership supports:

- Consumer and member-based marketing efforts via direct advertising, websites, social media platforms and events promoting #IllinoisWine
- Educational training for grape growers and winemakers
- Consulting with enology and viticulture specialists
- Networking opportunities to promote positive business relationships
- Promotion of legislation to protect and further the interests of our industry
- Grant fund procurement to support and grow the Illinois grape and wine industry
- IGGVA sponsored events and festivals
